

Jack Slater Memorial Announcement

Peace in the Valley, Joy in the Morning

Jack Slater

September 10, 1946
to March 24, 2006

Actor, teacher, writer, painter, activist, story teller, humorist, gardener,
liver transplant recipient,
true sweet heart,
brother, son, neighbor and friend

See the series of articles Jack wrote for The Seattle Times between 2003-05 about living with Hepatitis C, waiting for and receiving a liver transplant at www.seattletimes.com/jackslater as well as the final article about his passing.

Deborah Swets invites you to attend a Memorial Service for her Husband,

Jack Slater

2 p.m.
Sunday, April 30, 2006
The Great Hall at Town Hall
1119 - 8th Ave
(at Seneca Street on First Hill)
Seattle, WA

It's a large space.
Any and all are welcome.

For questions about the Memorial Service, contact Maribeth Berberich, 425-644-0550
mbberberi@msn.com

Parking information and directions are found at the Town Hall website <http://www.townhallseattle.org> or call (206) 652-4255

Contributions in honor of Jack Slater may be made to:

CityClub, 1904 Third Avenue, Suite 622,
Seattle, WA 98101-1100

LifeCenter Northwest, 11245 S.E. Sixth Street,
Suite 100, Bellevue, WA 98004

Ballard Food Bank, 7001 24th Avenue,
NW, Seattle, WA 98117

